

Leh Ladakh Tour Itinerary

The first step to roaming around Leh Ladakh is booking flights and hotels. Once you arrive, your itinerary is as follows:

Day 1:

Morning: Start your day with a visit to the beautiful Shanti Stupa, an iconic white-domed Buddhist stupa that offers a breathtaking panoramic view of the city.

Afternoon: Head towards the Leh Palace, a magnificent 17th-century palace that was once the residence of the royal family.

Evening: End your day with a walk along the bustling Leh Bazaar, where you can shop for souvenirs and try local street food. Recommended restaurant: The Tibetan Kitchen for authentic Tibetan cuisine.

Day 2:

Morning: Start your day early with a scenic drive to Nubra Valley, a high-altitude desert with stunning sand dunes and scenic mountains.

Afternoon: Visit the Diskit Monastery, the oldest and largest monastery in the Nubra Valley.

Evening: Enjoy a sunset camel ride on the sand dunes of Hunder. Recommended restaurant: The Apricot Tree for traditional Ladakhi cuisine.

Day 3:

Morning: Go on an adventurous drive to Pangong Tso, a spectacular lake that spans between India and Tibet.

Afternoon: Enjoy a picnic lunch by the lake and soak in the serene beauty of the surroundings.

Evening: Return to Leh in the evening and spend some time unwinding at your hotel. Recommended restaurant: Bon Appetit for continental cuisine.

Day 4:

Morning: Embark on a thrilling rafting adventure on the Zaskar River, known for its white-water rapids.

Afternoon: Visit the Alchi Monastery, a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its unique artwork and architecture.

Evening: End your trip with a visit to the Magnetic Hill, where you can witness an optical illusion that makes objects appear to roll uphill. Recommended restaurant: Lamayuru Restaurant for Indian and Chinese cuisine.

These are just a few of the many attractions that Leh Ladakh has to offer. Make sure to pack warm clothes as the temperatures can drop significantly, and always carry plenty of water to stay hydrated in the high-altitude regions.
