

ITMA Trade Fair Tour Itinerary

The first step to roaming around ITMA is booking flights and hotels. Once you arrive, your itinerary is as follows :

Day 1:

Morning: Start your day with a visit to the ITMA Trade Fair Tour, one of the world's largest textile and garment technology exhibitions. Get up close with the latest trends and innovative materials in the industry.

Afternoon: Head to the Gothic Quarter for a historic walking tour of Barcelona's oldest neighborhood. Visit the famous Cathedral and the Picasso Museum.

Evening: End your day with a delicious Mediterranean dinner at La Cova Fumada, a traditional tapas bar known for its fresh seafood and grilled meats.

Day 2:

Morning: Take a trip to the Montserrat mountains, where you can visit the famous monastery and enjoy breathtaking views of the surrounding countryside.

Afternoon: Visit the Park Guell, one of Barcelona's most iconic landmarks. Have a picnic and explore the whimsical architecture and colorful mosaics.

Evening: For dinner, head to Bodega 1900, a modernist-inspired restaurant where you can taste some of the best tapas in the city.

Day 3:

Morning: Explore the famous La Boqueria market, where you can find a wide variety of fresh produce, meats, and seafood. Join a food tour to learn about the city's gastronomy.

Afternoon: Visit the Sagrada Familia, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most iconic buildings in Barcelona.

Evening: End your trip with a visit to the trendy El Born neighborhood. Enjoy a craft beer and tapas at Biercab and then head to the rooftop bar of the Grand Hotel Central for stunning views of the city.

These are just some of the many attractions and experiences that the ITMA Trade Fair Tour has to offer. With so much to see and do, you'll want to come back again and again.
