

Australia Tour Itinerary

The first step to roaming around Australia is booking flights and hotels. Once you arrive, your itinerary is as follows:

Day 1: Sydney

Begin your day by visiting the iconic Sydney Opera House, one of the most famous buildings in the world. Take a guided tour to learn about its fascinating history and architecture.

Afterward, head over to the nearby Sydney Harbour Bridge, where you can take a bridge climb to the top for stunning views of the city and harbor.

In the afternoon, visit the Royal Botanic Garden, a beautiful park filled with exotic plants and wildlife. Take a stroll around the gardens or enjoy a picnic with a view of the harbor.

In the evening, head to the vibrant neighborhood of Darlinghurst for dinner and drinks.

Day 2: Cairns

Catch an early morning flight from Sydney to Cairns, a tropical city in North Queensland.

Spend the day exploring the Great Barrier Reef, one of the world's most famous natural wonders. Take a boat tour to snorkel or scuba dive and see the incredible marine life up close.

In the evening, head to the Night Markets in Cairns, a bustling market with food, crafts, and live entertainment.

Day 3: Melbourne

Catch a morning flight from Cairns to Melbourne, a cosmopolitan city known for its art, culture, and food.

Spend the day exploring the city's laneways and street art, such as Hosier Lane and AC/DC Lane.

Visit the National Gallery of Victoria, the oldest and largest public art museum in Australia, with a collection of over 70,000 works.

In the evening, head to the bustling neighborhood of St. Kilda for dinner and drinks, and enjoy the sunset on the beach.

Of course, there are many other places to see and things to do in Australia, but this itinerary should give you a good overview of the country's diverse landscapes and culture.
