South Africa Tour Itinerary

The first step to roaming around South Africa is booking flights and hotels. Once you arrive, your itinerary is as follows:

Day 1: Cape Town

Start your day with a visit to Table Mountain, one of Cape Town's most iconic landmarks. Take the cable car up to the top for stunning views of the city and coastline.

Next, visit the colorful neighborhood of Bo-Kaap, known for its brightly painted houses and rich Malay culture.

In the afternoon, take a tour of Robben Island, where Nelson Mandela was imprisoned for 18 years. Learn about the island's history and its role in South Africa's struggle for democracy.

In the evening, head to the Victoria & Alfred Waterfront, a bustling shopping and dining destination with beautiful views of the harbor.

Day 2: Cape Winelands

Take a day trip to the Cape Winelands, just outside of Cape Town. This beautiful region is known for its vineyards and scenic drives.

Visit some of the top wineries in the area, such as Stellenbosch or Franschhoek, and sample some of South Africa's famous wines.

In the evening, enjoy a gourmet dinner at one of the many fine dining restaurants in the area.

Day 3: Kruger National Park

Catch a morning flight from Cape Town to Kruger National Park, one of South Africa's top wildlife destinations.

Spend the day on a guided safari, where you can see some of Africa's most iconic animals, such as lions, elephants, giraffes, and rhinos.

In the evening, relax at your lodge and enjoy a traditional South African braai (barbecue) under the stars.

Day 4: Johannesburg

Catch a morning flight from Kruger National Park to Johannesburg, South Africa's largest city.

Visit the Apartheid Museum, a powerful museum that tells the story of South Africa's struggle against apartheid and celebrates its hard-won democracy.

Next, head to the Soweto township, where you can learn about the history and culture of the city's largest township.

In the evening, enjoy a farewell dinner at one of Johannesburg's many excellent restaurant.
