France Switzerland Tour Itinerary

The first step to roaming around France and Switzerland is booking flights and hotels. Once you arrive, your itinerary is as follows:

Day 1:

Start the day in Paris, France, and visit the Eiffel Tower, one of the most iconic landmarks in the world.

Then, head to the Louvre Museum to see some of the most famous art pieces in the world, such as the Mona Lisa and the Winged Victory of Samothrace.

After lunch, take a train to Geneva, Switzerland, and arrive in the late afternoon.

Walk around the Old Town and see the Jet d'Eau, the famous fountain on Lake Geneva.

For dinner, try some Swiss cuisine, such as cheese fondue or raclette.

Day 2:

Take a train to Interlaken, a charming town nestled between two lakes and surrounded by the Swiss Alps.

Spend the day exploring the town and its surroundings, such as the nearby mountain towns of Grindelwald and Lauterbrunnen.

Take a cable car up to the Schilthorn, a 2,970-meter peak that offers stunning views of the Alps.

In the evening, return to Geneva and have dinner in one of the city's many restaurants.

Day 3:

Visit the Palace of Nations, the European headquarters of the United Nations, and learn about the organization's work.

Explore the Museum of Art and History, which houses collections of art, archaeology, and ethnography.

In the afternoon, take a train to Lausanne and visit the Olympic Museum, which celebrates the history of the Olympic Games.

Before departing, enjoy a final meal in Switzerland, perhaps sampling some chocolate or Swiss wine.

Finally, take a train back to Paris or your next destination.

Of course, this itinerary can be customized based on your interests and available time. Enjoy your trip!
