

Singapore Tour Itinerary

The first step to roaming around Singapore is booking flights and hotels. Once you arrive, your itinerary is as follows:

Day 1:

Start your day by visiting the Gardens by the Bay. This is a beautiful nature park with a variety of flora and fauna. You can take a leisurely walk around the park, visit the two iconic conservatories, and watch the Garden Rhapsody light and sound show in the evening.

After lunch, head over to Marina Bay Sands and take the elevator up to the SkyPark Observation Deck for a stunning view of the city skyline.

In the evening, take a stroll down Clarke Quay, a bustling riverside development with a variety of restaurants, bars, and clubs.

Day 2:

Start your day by visiting the Singapore Zoo, one of the best zoos in the world. You can see a variety of animals up close, including orangutans, tigers, and elephants.

After lunch, visit Sentosa Island, a popular tourist destination with attractions such as Universal Studios Singapore, the S.E.A. Aquarium, and the Adventure Cove Waterpark.

In the evening, visit the Night Safari, where you can see nocturnal animals in their natural habitat.

Day 3:

Start your day by visiting the Merlion Park, a Singaporean landmark that features a statue of a mythical creature with the head of a lion and the body of a fish.

After that, visit Chinatown and explore the area's history, culture, and food. You can visit the Buddha Tooth Relic Temple and Museum, Sri Mariamman Temple, and the Chinatown Heritage Centre.

In the evening, visit the Marina Bay Sands Casino, which is open 24 hours a day and features a variety of games.

That's a suggested itinerary for a 3-day tour of Singapore, but feel free to modify it to suit your interests and preferences. Have a great trip
